

'We have access to the resources we need to advance our soul's purpose'

The most enlightened aspect of our being is the beacon of light that guides the soul's journey to higher realms. Everything we experience in life, the soul has planned for. That which we create out of love brings unbounded joy, raises vibrations and expands our consciousness. Difficult experiences tell us exactly where we have limited our love and allowed fear to become the driver. This boundary line is precisely the point where we must learn to decode the messages from our Spiritual Intelligence.

The simple underlying principle for this work is that at all times 'we have access to the resources we need to advance our soul's purpose'. Everyday experiences continually give us clues to this roadmap. In these two days we will explore how to stay attuned to the greater spiritual wisdom, while staying firmly rooted in our 3 dimensional ground reality. What role does free will play? Why do road blocks appear? What do they tell us? How do we interpret the signals? Can we uncover root causes of chronic patterns and overcome them? To answer these questions, we will delve into

- Spiritual Intelligence - The Creative Process of the Universe
- Nature of the Soul – It's Multi-dimensional Presence
- Octaves of Learning – Expansion of the Soul
- Soul Relationships - Manifesting in the 3-D Reality
- Terms of Engagement -- Being versus Doing
- Towards Greater Presence of Self

Inner exploration is one of the main focus of these two days. The mind activates the process around ideas and understanding of Spiritual Intelligence. Individualized processes will be supported through meditations, tools of transformation, discussions and energy transmissions. Come prepared to meet the greater you.
